The Ward of Cheap Club (“WoCC”) in Partnership with the Cheapside Business Alliance (“CBA”); Invitation to a virtual Business Tea-Time Talk

Date: Wednesday 23 September 2020 (by Zoom)

Time: 4.00-5.00pm

Guest Speaker: Adele Paterson, CEO of International Health Partners (IHP)

Topic: "The challenge of accessing medicines in the Covid age, engaging the corporate sector and what Covid-19 will mean for IHP and their partners"

Adele Paterson is CEO of International Health Partners (IHP) a charity delivering healthcare product donations to disaster hit and vulnerable communities. With the support of an extensive network of corporate partners, IHP acts as a broker delivering long dated, needed and essential healthcare products to some of the 2bn people worldwide that don't have access to medicines. In the last three years IHP has delivered 8 million treatments to 60 countries. Adele will speak about the challenge of accessing medicines, engaging the corporate sector and what COVID-19 will mean for IHP and their partners.

Following the success of our three earlier virtual Business Tea-Time Talks in May, June and July the President of WoCC, in conjunction with CBA, would like to invite you to attend a fourth virtual Business Tea-Time Talk. The invitation has again been extended to the Financial Services Group of Livery Companies and voters in the Ward.

After a welcome by Charles Ledsam, President of WoCC, Adrian Waddingham, Senior Vice-President, will host the event. It will take the form of a presentation with slides by Alison, followed by a moderated question and answer session.

If you are interested in attending this event by Zoom, kindly send your name, business name and title, if relevant, together with your email address to:

Julie Fox foxsearth@btinternet.com

You will receive confirmation of your booking and joining details nearer the time.
